Art in Bloom Gallery, 6866 Main Street, Mayfaire Town Center, Wilmington. Through Oct. 1 - "Hearts & Souls: New Pastels by Jeri Greenberg". "Hearts & Souls" is Jeri Greenberg's newest body of work featuring her amazing pastel paintings. After many years as a fashion illustrator and sportswear designer, Greenberg turned her love of graphic design and color into a new and exciting "next act", working as a full-time painter and teacher. Feeling that "Pastels are an immediate tool to express feelings" and the perfect medium in which to "Make the Ordinary, Extraordinary", Greenberg works to tell stories in her work enabling her to draw the viewer in. Through Oct. 1 - "Ceramic Work Featuring Brian Evans & Dianne Evans." Brian Evans' work conveys inspiration that he finds in his surroundings. Sometimes something as simple as the blade of a saw or a bellows used to blow on a fire can inspire an entire series of work. This body of work conveys simple found objects that inspire minimal or complex linear forms. Local artist and potter, Dianne Evans, has had a passion for art since childhood. She was born and raised in scenic Indiana, Pennsylvania. Dianne developed an interest in art while studying under an inspirational high school art teacher. This experience also inspired her to want to become a teacher. Ongoing - The gallery presents original art by national and local artists. Burk Uzzle Studio, 106 Douglas Street E, Wilson. Ongoing - Burk Uzzle's career, like his pictures, is a nuanced composition blending American culture, individual psyches of particular places and people, and an atypical way of seeing ourselves, our values, and our community. Always respectful yet locating the poignant or quirky, the history of his narrative belongs to all of us. Initially grounded in documentary photography when he was the youngest photographer hired by "LIFE magazine" at age 23, his work grew into a combination of split-second impressions reflecting the human condition during his tenure as a member of the prestigious international Magnum cooperative founded by one of his mentors Henri Cartier-Bresson. His archive spans almost six decades. His current work rests deep in photographic appreciation of the quiet, strong, and eloquent beauty he discovers in America's small towns and its people. It is along small back roads, limned with feelings and a surety of surprise for the heart wide open, that continue to support his understanding of how America keeps its personality out on a limb. Uzzle's current bodies of work (some of which are African-American) are artful and constructed reflections of his subjects. His hope is for a graphic presentation of something universal within the particular, and all the better when involving a gentle chuckle and knowing smile. He is represented by SOCO Gallery in Charlotte, NC and Tracy Morgan Gallery in Asheville, NC. Hours: by appt. Contact: 252/363-1812 or e-mail to (burk@burkuzzle.com).
