gallery is one of two permanent exhibit spaces designed by award winning exhibit design firm, Haley Sharpe Design. Waters Gallery, Through Dec. 2 - "Re/educated". In his ongoing series of paintings, North Carolina based artist Marcus Dunn explores problematic history - the United States' system of re-education camps for Native American children. Dunn's images are derived partly from documentary photographs of these "boarding schools" which generations of Native people were forced to attend during the late 19th and early 20th century. With broken brushwork and a muted color palette, Dunn's paintings simultaneously evoke a sense of faded memory, while bringing attention to a critically overlooked part of American history. Dunn descends from Tuscarora and Pee Dee tribal heritage. He earned his MFA in painting from Savannah College of Art and Design and currently teaches at Richmond Community College and University of North Carolina, Pembroke. Admission: Free. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm & Sun. 2-5pm. Contact: 843/676-1200 or visit (www.flocomuseum.org).

Hyman Fine Arts Center, Francis Marion University, Florence. Adele Kassab Art Gallery, Through Nov. 10 - "Michaela Pilar-Brown (Installation & Performance)". Brown is an image and object maker. She studied sculpture and art history at Howard University, though she has always been a maker of things. Born in Bangor, Maine and raised in Denver, Colorado, she cut her teeth in the halls of a museum where her mother worked as a security guard, and has been immersed in the culture of objects, their making and interpretation ever since. Nov. 15 - Dec. 8 - "Senior Shows by Graduating FMU Visual Arts Majors". Senior shows are required of all students majoring in Visual Arts. These shows give students hands-on experience in selection and installation of artworks, publicity of exhibition, and external review by the University community and the general public. Nov. 15 - Dec. 8 - "Works by Ceramics and 3-D Design Classes". Students in ceramics classes learn processes and techniques in both wheel-throwing and hand building in the art and craft of pottery. Throwing leads progressively toward stoneware clay tooling, decorating, glazing and firing. As they advance through the curriculum, students add ceramic fabrications methods of slab-work, modeling from solid masses, and press molding. Multi-part forms and porcelain formula clay bodies are created as artistic discipline develops along with the individual's philosophy, critical awareness and aesthetics. Students taking Three-Dimensional Design classes investigate organization techniques, with special emphasis on the plastic controls of form and space. They learn to use a variety of tools and various sculptural media, including wood, plaster and clay. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 8:30am-5pm. Contact: Jessica Willis, Gallery Curator, at 843/661-1539 or at (<https://www.fmarion.edu/finearts/artgalleryseriescurrent/>).

Greenville

Throughout the Greenville area, Nov. 12, from 10am-6pm & Nov. 13, from noon-6pm, 2022 - "Greenville Open Studios," sponsored by Piedmont Natural Gas. Featuring 150 artists, 100 studios, during 1 weekend. A preview show will be offered on Nov. 11, from 10am-6pm by select participants. For info visit (<https://www.greenvillearts.com/greenville-open-studios/>). Studio locations vary throughout a 15-mile radius of downtown Greenville with Easley, Greer, Travelers Rest and Simpsonville included. The goals of Greenville Open Studios are to provide free and convenient community access to visual arts, to educate and create a dialogue between artists and the general public by opening artists' place of work and inviting the community-at-large to participate in the creative process, and to create new marketing opportunities for artists. It is the organizers' desire that the project will open up the world of visual artists to everyone - from the seasoned collector to the first-time art buyer to the curious general public. For further info visit (<https://www.greenvillearts.com/greenville-open-studios/>).

Downtown Greenville - "First Fridays," featuring a gallery crawl presented on the first Fri. of the month from 6-9pm. Visit galleries throughout the downtown area. For info: (www.fristfridaysonline.com).

Work by Sarkis Chorbadian

Greenville Center for Creative Arts, 25 Draper Street, Greenville. Main Gallery, Through Nov. 23 - "Narratives Ending in Separation," featuring works by Linda Williams McCune. A reception will be held on Nov. 4, from 6-9pm, during Greenville's First Friday. In "Narratives Ending in Separation", McCune's mixed media sculptures traverse emotional autobiographies that memorialize cherished family, childhood fears, and a young woman's longing for children. These sculptures give the opportunity to remember and honor the importance of the everyday, of family. Community Gallery, Nov. 4 - Dec. 21 - "Square Roots," featuring works by Sarkis Chorbadian. A reception will be held on Nov. 4, from 6-9pm. Chorbadian showcases square-formatted paintings that explore the application and removal of oil & cold wax layers. Ongoing - Home to 16 studio artists. Hours: Wed.-Fri., 1-5pm. Contact: call 864/735-3948 or at (www.artcentergreenville.org).

Greenville County Museum of Art, 420 College Street, Greenville. Continuing on view - "Love Letters in the Sand," explores the evocative and ephemeral themes of memory and sentimentality, truth and story, highlighting works by Andrew Wyeth, Jamie Wyeth, Thomas Sills, Margaret Bowland, and more. Continuing on view - "But Wait -- There's More!," showcases our 2022 Art for Greenville acquisitions and includes works by David Drake, Jasper Johns, William H. Johnson, Jamie Wyeth, and Andrew Wyeth. If you'd like to learn more about how you can help us continue to grow our extraordinary collection, visit (gcma.org/support). Continuing on view - "Jasper Johns + Andrew Wyeth: Repeat Until Empty," featuring eight original works by Jasper Johns and eleven seldom exhibited paintings by Andrew Wyeth. Jasper Johns (born 1930) is the world's most critically acclaimed living artist. His work bridges the immediate post-World War II modernist trends of Surrealism and Abstract Expressionism with subsequent movements of the 1960s, including Pop art, Minimalism, and Conceptual art. Ongoing - "Soul Deep: African-American Masterworks," featuring 38 works by 20 artists. Ranging from a rare 1840 poem jar by enslaved potter David Drake (c. 1800 to c. 1870) to an evocative 2020 abstract painting by Frank Wimberley (born 1926), "Soul Deep" spans 180 years of American history. Ongoing - "Thomas Sills: Man of Color". Born to North Carolina sharecroppers in 1914, Thomas Sills took a circuitous path to achieve success as an artist. When he was only 11, he traveled by train from Raleigh to Harlem, where he stayed with an older brother. Over the years he worked a number of odd jobs, including theater doorman, church custodian, stevedore, and liquor deliveryman. Admission: Free. Hours: Wed.-Sat., 10am-6pm and Sun., 1-5pm. Contact: 864/271-7570 or at (www.gcma.org).

Tiger Strikes Asteroid Greenville, Hampton Station Bay 6, Unit 601, Hampton Station, 1320 Hampton Avenue Extension, Greenville. Through Nov. 19 - "Between States of Being". This exhibition, featuring works by Andrew Bailey Arend, Dakota Gearhart, Martha Glenn, and Rachel Meginnis, explores a nebulous space of transformation, where the self is neither what it was before or what it will become. There exists a nothingness between states of being. When something transforms from one thing to another, as with metamorphosis from a caterpillar into a butterfly, there is a time when it is neither the thing it was, nor the thing it will become. But, this space is necessary for metamorphosis, even in the smallest increment. This exhibition is curated by TSA GVL member Lindsay Smith Gustave. Hours: Fri., 4-8pm; Sat., noon-6pm or by appt. Contact: e-mail to (greenville@tigerstrikesasteroid.com).
