The Nasher Museum of Art, Duke University Central Campus, 2001 Campus Drive, Durham. Through Jan. 11 - "Rauschenberg: Collecting & Connecting," featuring an ambitious exhibition originating at Duke in close collaboration with the Robert Rauschenberg Foundation in New York City. The exhibition offers a fresh look at 34 of Rauschenberg's works spanning six decades of his career, art that he reserved in his own collection. Organized into eight sections, two gallery pavilions will feature Rauschenberg together with work by artists in the Nasher Museum's permanent collection, with special emphasis on its significant group of Russian nonconformist and conceptual art of the 1980s and 1990s, on view for the first time. Through Feb. 22 - "Miró: The Experience of Seeing". The exhibition presents a rare glimpse at the later works of Spanish-born artist Joan Miró (1893-1983), one of the greatest innovators of 20th-century art in Europe. This is the first-ever presentation of the final 20 years of Miró's career. Don't miss the only East Coast venue for this special ticketed exhibition. All works are on loan from the Museo Nacional Centro de Arte Reina Sofía, Madrid, Spain. In 1956, Miró moved to a new studio on the island of Mallorca, Spain. Here the artist could, for the first time, gather together and reflect on decades of his work. For the remainder of his life, Miró underwent a period of tremendous productivity in painting, printmaking and sculpture. The exhibition reveals a tireless creativity and an intimate connection to nature and the human figure. Come and discover this joyous and inspirational late work by one of the great masters of 20th century art. Through Feb. 12,, 2016 - "New Collection Galleries". To celebrate the Nasher Museum's 10th anniversary, we will showcase our exciting and fast-growing collection. The Nasher Museum is evolving—from presenting great exhibitions to also presenting our strong collection. It has grown by more than 1,000 works of art in 10 years, and has helped the museum to become a key player in the international art world. One gallery pavilion, freshly reconfigured, will display the best of the historical collection, telling the story of art history through nine distinct spaces. Those installations will feature classical antiquities, medieval art, early American (Pre-Columbian) art, European and American paintings and sculpture, modern art and African art. A second gallery pavilion will feature the museum's contemporary collection, allowing for frequent and lively change-outs as new acquisitions arrive. The Nasher Museum will reaffirm its position as the keystone of the arts at Duke University with an emphasis on undergraduate education and opportunities for undergraduate student-curated installations. Also - Nasher Museum Café and Museum Shop. Admission: Yes, but free to Durham residents, courtesy of "The Herald-Sun" newspaper. Hours: Tue.- Sat., 10am-5pm; Thur. till 9pm; & Sun., noon-5pm. Weatherspoon Art Museum, University of North Carolina - Greensboro, Cone Building, Tate and Spring Garden Streets, Greensboro. The Gregory D. Ivy Gallery and The Weatherspoon Guild Gallery, Through Feb. 15 - "Innovations in Painting: Selections from the Collection". Whether illustrating new perspectives on traditional motifs, experimenting with abstraction, or employing innovative techniques, the artists featured in this exhibition have pushed the limits and ideas about paint and painting to create groundbreaking, original work. The exhibition starts with Willem de Kooning's Woman, in which the artist experimented with abstracted form and vigorous applications of paint. Similarly, Ralph Humphrey and Scott Ritcher's highly impastoed surfaces suggest the process and materiality of painting as does Linda Besemer's folded, textile-like example. In contrast, Tom LaDuke culled images from popular culture and art history to create a complexly layered work while Creighton Michael employed a web of swirling lines. Their paintings explore the visual tension that results from the contrasting flatness and illusion of space residing within the pictorial planes. Even works that appear unassuming at first glance, such as Harriet Korman's "Untitled" or Robert Indiana's "Route 66," have added vastly to the ever-evolv-
