PRESTON FOR PROGRESS

"I am Joe Preston. I am a 38 year old husband, adoptive father of 2, former firefighter, and concerned citizen.

I am a Democrat running for the South Carolina House of Representatives District 112.

Under current leadership, our state is failing. We fail when it comes to education, road infrastructure, opportunity, safety, and crime.

Corruption has become regular order at the statehouse.

I am running because this situation can no longer be tolerated and real change is needed."

Fabulon in Charleston, SC, Tells Love Story Through Art

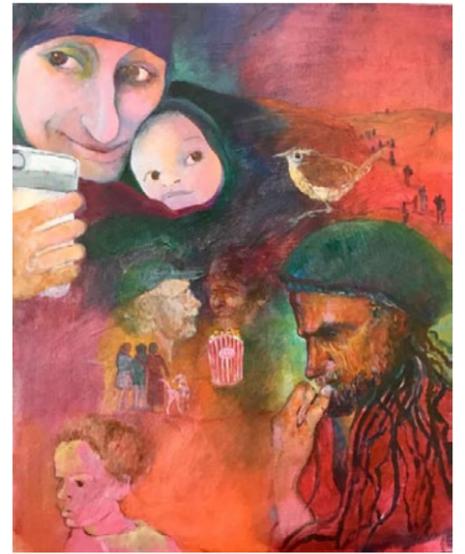

Fabulon, A Center for Art and Education, located in the West Ashley area of Charleston, SC, will present its third annual Not Your Typical Love Story Show, on view from Jan. 23 through Mar. 1, 2018. A reception will be held on Feb. 10, from 5-8pm.

With the bells of the New Year still echoing in our ears, we will soon be confronted with hearts, candy, and the trappings of modern day Valentine's Day.

Each year at this time we put out a call for our Not Your Typical Love Story Show. It started two years ago as a quest to battle commercialism, materialism, over consumption and narrow-minded views. We had the idea to show art that illustrated the many facets of love, a truer vision of Saint Valentine's mission, and spread some empathy.

With so much news of injustice, incivility, instability, and insecurity, it is hard to imagine thoughts of love. Or that love could be a remedy. We thought of cancelling the show. And then we realized that this year, "what the world needs now is love, sweet love." We'd love to invite you to share how artists nationwide interpret the meaning of love in this third annual Not Your Typical Love Story Show.

Fabulon is West Ashley's center for art and education. This is a place for people of
