Mint Museum Randolph, 2730 Randolph Road, Charlotte. Through Jan. 12, 2014 - "Dior, Balmain, Saint Laurent: Elegance and Ease". The exhibit explores the designs of three major Parisian designers with selections from The Mint Museum's Fashion Collection, which celebrates its 40th anniversary this year. French fashion has long been and continues to form the foundation of global designs. Christian Dior (1905-1957) established Paris as the center of the world of modern haute couture. In the late 1940s, Dior's "New Look" fashions presented small, nipped-in waistlines above full skirts which emphasized the bust and hips in these silhouettes. He selected extravagant fabrics for his dresses and gowns, and his designs soon captured the attention of prominent clients from around the world. His innovations and designs, for decades thereafter, influenced women's fashions and the designers who created them. Known for the elegance and movement of his formal designs, Pierre Balmain (1914-1982) created fine, slim silhouettes for his tailored suits. Even today, Balmain's vintage gowns are highly sought after by fashionistas across the globe. Yves Saint Laurent (1936-2008) is recognized as one of the greatest names in fashion history, called "the most consistently celebrated and influential designer of the past twenty years" by fashion historian Caroline Rennolds Milbank. He was among the first to present ready-to-wear designs, including his famous tuxedo suits for women that became a symbol of fashionable ease. His formal and evening fashions as well as tailored suits display his talent and ability to create impressive directions in the world of haute couture and luxury fashion. Through June 29, 2014 - "Bearing Witness: The New York Photo League and Sonia Handelman Meyer". The New York Photo League was established in 1936, and centered on the exploration of the power of photography to effect social change and capture the lives of ordinary people as they had never before been depicted. The exhibition includes approximately 100 photographs from Photo League members. Ongoing - "American Glass". The nineteenth and early twentieth centuries represented a time of extraordinary growth for the American glass industry. Such companies as Boston & Sandwich Glass Company in Sandwich, MA; Steuben Glass Works in Corning, NY; and Libbey Glass Company in Toledo, OH, began operation and soon developed notable reputations for producing fashionable wares that were coveted by many middle- and upper-class consumers. "American Glass" showcases objects by these and other American glass companies, illustrating the variety of forms and styles that prevailed during this period. Glass-manufacturing techniques will be another focus of the exhibition, with representative examples of pressed, cut, blown, and molded glass. Nearly all of the works on view are from The Mint Museum's permanent collection of glass, which is second in size only to the ceramics collection in the museum's Decorative Arts holdings. Ongoing - "Arts of Africa".
