Work by Roksolana Kocherhina

Litmus Gallery & Studios, 312 W. Cabarrus Street, (across the tracks from Amtrak Train Station) Raleigh. Through Mar. 1 - "InnerVisions". Louie Johnston is an up and coming New age/Abstract artist who lives in Raleigh. His inner visions of life are put together preciously upon his canvas's with multiple materials. Johnston's works are physically in depth as well as internally. He states that he has "No true style he follows", and "That life is not the same day to day". He feels that art should move in the same direction of a new, changing day. Mar. 7 - 29 - "Euphoria". A reception will be held on Mar. 7, from 6-9pm. This exhibit contains art created by Roksolana Kocherhina in an abstract-futuristic style. Every piece incorporates the snapshot of emotional state of the characters. While some pieces express the euphoria and joy, others are overwhelmed with pain and fear. Most of the art is interconnected. If you look closer you can see the life story of a particular character. Overall the work is created to remind each and every one of us how precious every minute of our life is and that the sense of life is in the search of our true love. Ongoing - Regional emerging and/or established artists are featured every month with a reception from 6-9pm the first Friday of each month.
