

Southern Highland Craft Guild in Asheville, NC, Celebrates National Quilting Day - Mar. 14-16, 2024

The Southern Highland Craft Guild in Asheville, NC, will present Celebrating National Quilting Day, at The Folk Art Center's Lobby, on Mar. 14 - 16, 2024, from 10am-4pm.

National Quilting Day is Saturday, Mar. 16, 2024. Guild member and quilter Connie Brown will be demonstrating hand-quilting skills in the lobby of the Folk Art Center Mar. 14, 15, and 16, 2024. Guild member, fabric artist and quilter, Jude Stuecker, will join her on Saturday, Mar. 16 with demonstrations.

Brown is also a quilt historian and AQS Quilt Appraiser. On March 14-16 a selection of antique and vintage quilts from her collection will be displayed. Each day at 11am and 1pm, Brown will give an informal talk about the quilts, inviting visitors to ask questions. This is an opportunity to discuss fabrics, patterns and other clues that quilt historians use to help date a quilt.

Contemporary quilts can be found throughout the Folk Art Center in the shop and second floor galleries.

Admission to the Folk Art Center is free. The Folk Art Center is located at Milepost 382 of the Blue Ridge Parkway. Headquarters to the Southern Highland Craft Guild, the Center also houses three exhibition spaces, a library, a craft shop and a Blue Ridge Parkway information desk and bookstore.

The Southern Highland Craft Guild is a non-profit, educational organization established in 1930 to cultivate the crafts and makers of the Southern Highlands for the purpose of shared resources, education, marketing and conservation. The Southern Highland Craft Guild is an authorized concessioner of the National Park Service, Department of the Interior.

Pink Dog Creative in Asheville, NC, Features Works by Julieta Fumberg

Pink Dog Creative in Asheville, NC, will present Of Chaos and Peace: beauty in both, featuring works by Julieta Fumberg, on view at the Pink Dog Gallery, from Mar. 1 through May 5, 2024. A reception will be held on Mar. 9, from 5-7pm.

Fumberg states, "We need the darkness to see the light and the contrast of things. The human heart beats, in and out, creating the contrast that it needs to sustain life. Join me as I exhibit my most recent work. Let's spark some light into the world."

"I am a multidisciplinary visual artist. My main mediums are acrylics, watercolors, graphic design, and photography. I was born and raised in Buenos Aires, Argentina, a magical city full of culture and art. I lived in a few places along the way before finding a wonderful home in the mountains of Asheville. I believe that being creative is a way of life and I am lucky enough to do what I love every day. My style is very urban and disruptive, full of color and boldness in all the mediums I work in."

"I have always loved art, one of my most dear memories is from when I was about 7 years old in an art class at school in Buenos Aires," adds Fumberg. "I remember in detail all the art supplies, the kiln for ceramics, the tables, and the smells. Art fires up my soul, and I feel like a messenger and a message is just coming through me."
