Metropolitan Arts Council Gallery, 16 Augusta Street, Greenville. Through Apr. 13 - "Art & Iron," featuring works by Frank McGrath. "My art is all about the creative possibilities of found objects. When I find the right object, whether I'm walking the streets of Greenville or New York City, or searching through a flea market, I know it. The object sparks an idea which unfolds on the drawing board and is them completed in my metal shop. I love what I do," says McGrath. Ongoing - Featuring works by Greenville area artists. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 9am-5pm. Contact: 864/467-3132, or at (www.greenvillearts.com).

Museum & Gallery, Bob Jones University, Wade Hampton Boulevard, Greenville. Ongoing - "Likely and Unlikely Pairings," featuring a fascinating juxtaposition of art and mundane objects revealing a variety of viewpoints. Lake City

Lake City Library Community Center, 221 E. Main Street, Lake City. Apr. 20 - 28, during ArtFields 2018 - Chapel Of Perpetual Adoration, featuring works by Kristi Ryba. This installation will be the first opportunity for the public to see this satirical work about the Trump White House and our current government. Ryba's work is based on original Medieval and Renaissance altarpieces and manuscripts. Since the 2016 election she saw parallels in these original works with our current President and political situation. It was a natural progression to combine current news, commentary and especially "tweets" with the religious and political content of these historical images from early Western European royalty and religion. Hours: reg. library hours. Contact: (www.kristiryba.com) or (www.artfieldssc.org).
