

Hodges Taylor Contemporary

continued from Page 15

ern Center for Contemporary Art, NC; Ackland Art Museum, NC; Spartanburg Art Museum, SC; Coker University, SC; A.I.R. Gallery, Brooklyn, NY; The Painting Center, New York; Target Gallery, VA.; Rubber Stamp Projects, FL; Allcott Gallery, NC; 701 Center for Contemporary Art, SC; among others. Mixon lives and works in Charleston, SC.

Hodges Taylor was founded in 1980 and is Charlotte's longest-running gallery and consulting firm. As a contemporary gallery with a focus on promoting Southeastern artists in a range of mediums, Hodges Taylor curates and presents artists who share in common the power to spark curiosity, conversation, and collaboration. As an art consulting firm providing services to both corporate and individual collectors, the gallery provides services and develops projects that integrate works of art into every aesthetic, environment, and concept.

Hodges Taylor is located in the courtyard of The RailYard building in Charlotte's South End on S. Tryon Street, Ste 130, Charlotte, NC 28203.

For further information check our NC Commercial Gallery listings, call 704/608-2016 or visit (hodgestaylor.com).

Jerald Melberg Gallery in Charlotte, NC, Features Works by Donald Sultan

Jerald Melberg Gallery in Charlotte, NC, will present Iconic Florals, featuring works by Donald Sultan, a titan of American art, on view from Apr. 23 through June 11, 2022. A reception will be held on Apr. 22, from 6-8pm.

Paintings, conte crayon drawings and screenprints will be presented in the artist's inaugural solo exhibition with the Charlotte, North Carolina-based gallery.

Work by Donald Sultan

Sultan is a painter, printmaker, and sculptor known for large-scale, multi-media compositions of flowers, fruit, dominoes, and other simple forms that are both representational and abstract. His first linoleum paintings of the 1970s were inspired by the unconventional 'found objects' used in the Arte Povera modern art movement in Europe. There have been over 50 solo exhibitions of his work that have appeared in museums and galleries worldwide, including the Guggenheim, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, and the Whitney Museum of American Art in New York, the Tate Modern in London, the North Carolina Museum of Art, and the Museum of Contemporary Art in Tokyo.

Work by Donald Sultan

A native of Asheville, NC, where he was recognized with the 2010 North Carolina Award, the highest award a state can bestow on a civilian, Sultan has lived in New York City since 1977. A 1980-81 NEA Visual Arts Fellowship recipient, he has a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from UNC-Chapel Hill, and a Master of Fine Arts from the School of the Art Institute in Chicago.

Jerald Melberg Gallery is located on South Sharon Amity Road near the intersection with Providence Road.

For further information check our NC Commercial Gallery listings, call the gallery at 704/365.3000 or visit (www.jeraldmelberg.com).

Bernardin's at Ratcliffe, in Charlotte, NC, Features Works by Carol Clayton

Bernardin's Event/Gallery in Uptown Charlotte, NC, will present an exhibition of oil paintings featuring works by Carol Clayton and her new series Tiny Birds. The exhibition will open Apr. 1 with the artist reception from 4-9pm. The exhibit will continue until Apr. 30, 2022.

Clayton is a well known artist in the Charlotte area and this is her second one woman show. Her award winning landscapes of the Carolinas were featured in 2019 in the Carolina Visions show sponsored by the city of Mint Hill, NC.

This exhibition will include some of her landscapes as well as her new series "Tiny Birds" which includes some mixed media (with oils) and a more exploratory flair. The exhibition will contain 40 of Clayton's paintings.

Work by Carol Clayton

Bernaedin's at Ratcliffe (on the Green) is located on S. Tryon Street, across from the Bechtler and Mint Museums in Uptown Charlotte.

For further information check our NC Commercial Gallery listings, call 704/332-3188 or visit (Bernardinsinedining.com).

Central Piedmont Community College in Charlotte, NC, Features Annual Student Show

Central Piedmont Community College in Charlotte, NC, will present the 2022 Annual Juried Student Art Show, on view in the Ross and Overcash Art Galleries, from Apr. 4 through July 29, 2022.

Each year, Central Piedmont Community College's Visual Arts Department hosts the Annual Juried Student Art Show, recognizing student works in ceramics, 2D and 3D design, drawing, jewelry, painting, photography, printmaking and sculpture.

Students with works featured in the show are eligible to receive a variety of awards, ranging from the Presidential Purchase Award, Foundation Purchase Award, John White Photography Award, Kappy McClenegen Drawing Award, as well as first, second and third place awards. Each year, the 'Student Art Show' showcases select student artwork in this celebratory exhibition, held during the college's

continued above on next column to the right

Photograph by Central Piedmont staff photographer Darnell Yennie

Polonaise, 1976, oil on canvas, 60 x 48 inches

UNPACKED

The works of Ellen Lee Klein

January 10 - December 9, 2022

704.330.6869 • foundation@cpcc.edu
blogs.cpcc.edu/cpccartgalleries/pattyandbillgorelickgalleries

Bill and Patty Gorelick Gallery

Central Piedmont Harris Campus
Harris Conference Center
3210 Harris Campus Drive
Charlotte, NC 28208

Sensoria festival.

The juror for this year's Student Show is distinguished artist and professor, Andrew Leventis. In addition to his own art practice as a painter, Leventis serves as a painting instructor at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. Leventis holds a BFA in Painting from the American Academy of Arts in Chicago as well as an Master of Fine Arts degree from Goldsmiths College, University of London. His passion for community engagement, art and art education exemplifies in his work with students.

Central Piedmont Community College is highly accessible and convenient to people of all ages who seek a real-world, affordable, hands-on education that will transform their lives and strengthen the economic, social, and cultural environment of Mecklenburg County. Central Piedmont is also a smart investment. At a fraction of the cost, students learn by doing, receiving a combination of technical and soft skills training from quality faculty who prepare them to enter the workforce and make a difference in their family, business, community, and world.

Founded in 1963, Central Piedmont Community College has eight locations throughout Mecklenburg County, offering nearly 300 degree, diploma, and certification programs; customized corporate training; market-focused continuing education; and special interest classes. For more information, visit (cpcc.edu), or connect with the college on social media at (cpcc.edu/social).

Follow us on Instagram and Facebook at Central Piedmont Arts and our blog at (<http://blogs.cpcc.edu/cpccartgalleries/>). For further information check our NC Institutional Gallery listings or contact Amelia Zytka by email at (amelia.zytka@cpcc.edu).

Central Piedmont Community College in Charlotte, NC, Offers Virtual Exhibition

Central Piedmont Community College's new Pauline Dove Art Gallery to feature works by its namesake, exhibition to be held virtually at (<http://blogs.cpcc.edu/cpccartgalleries/>), through July 21, 2022.

The new Pauline Dove Art Gallery, located inside the college's new Parr Center, will display a new exhibition virtually by its namesake - Pauline Dove - that will include an eclectic array of artwork featuring energetic swirling colors and highly creative compositions. The selection of works will present the full spectrum of Dove's skills, ranging from painting, silver point, prints, ceramics, and books. Dove's new exhibition honors her late sister, Selma, and celebrates life, love, sisterhood, and the joys of making art.

As a former chair of the Visual Arts Program and studio art instructor at

"Uncle Robert" by Pauline Dove

Central Piedmont, Dove's career at the college spanned three decades. During her tenure she taught a variety of visual arts classes. As a result, her legacy thrives in the college's halls to this day. After

continued on Page 17