ALTERNATE ART SPACES - Rock Hill White Street Gallery, 130 West White Street, Rock Hill. On Permanent Display, until the material on which they are printed begins to deteriorate - "ALLEYS AS GALLERY'S". The Arts Council of York County implemented the Alleys as Gallery's program with an exhibition in Cotton Alley on East Main St. in Rock Hill in 2018. This new project serves as the second Alleys as Gallery's installation. Alleys as Gallery's transforms York County, South Carolina's well-traveled alleys into art galleries that feature works by local and regional artists. Works by six York County high school students, Bruna Coelho, Luc Mercado, Paige Evans, Heather Lenti, Ashley Walsh, and Hunter Sigmond, were selected for a public art installation on the fence between Dust OFF Brewing Company and the Lowenstein Building along the Williams & Fudge fence line that faces White Street. ## Spartanburg

Throughout downtown Spartanburg's Cultural District, Ongoing - The Creative Crosswalk Project is a public art initiative in which local artists and designers design and paint a series of crosswalk murals, transforming the crosswalks into works of art, on Main Street in Spartanburg, SC. The downtown cultural district area is often bustling with events and pedestrians, and the pedestrians rely heavily on a multitude of crosswalks to safely traverse the downtown Spartanburg area. The problem is that crosswalks are incredibly easy to overlook, they are rarely visually appealing, and they can even be quite dangerous. In an effort to remedy these issues, Chapman Cultural Center, the City of Spartanburg, and the Spartanburg Area Chamber of Commerce came together to organize the Creative Crosswalk Project. For more info visit (<https://www.chapmanculturalcenter.org/pages/blog/detail/article/c0/a1555/>).

Work by Carole Knudson Tinsley

Artists Collective I Spartanburg (formerly West Main Artists Cooperative), 578 West Main St., Spartanburg. Solomon Gallery, Through Apr. 30 - "Past to Present: Retrospective: 60 Years Painting," featuring works by Carole Knudson Tinsley. A reception will be held April 21, from 6-9pm. When she was 10 years old, Carole Knudson Tinsley won a blue ribbon at the Sangamon (Illinois) County Fair for an ink drawing of a little girl. Six decades later, her artwork has developed from that "realistic" work to expressionistic to "imaginative abstraction." The exhibition relates to Tinsley's paintings from when she became a "serious painter" to the present, with examples of studies and paintings expressing her development through the years. "Interests earlier were of more realistic subjects, but later I became interested in abstracting my compositions," she says. "Many works will reflect my interest in ancient cultures, especially Native Americans characteristics of their dwellings. One will observe earlier works which were created with oils, then went to watercolors. Presently I paint with acrylics and mixed media collage." Gallery II, Through Apr. 2 - "Elemental Journeys: A Mixed Media Collection of Energy, Light, Crystals and Color, featuring works by Robyn Crawford. Crawford asks viewers to "feel the energy of each piece and travel through the elements of the Earth, starting with water and air and transitioning to fire and earth." She adds, "We are all connected to everyone and everything," says Crawford, who lives in Hendersonville with her two children. "I have always been inspired by nature, life cycles, patterns, color and music. It occurred to me that I was actually using all the elements in the creation of these works and began to intentionally work though having all the elements represented." Apr. 5 - 30 - "Clayshapers Pottery: Made with Clay," featuring works by Sally and Jim Weber. "We want visitors to the exhibition to have an appreciation of the versatility of mud from the earth," Sally Weber says. "They will see an array of colorful and whimsical pottery that will put a smile on your face and joy in your heart to witness the talent of two clay shapers." Married 37 years, the Webers have exhibited their art in numerous shows through the Southeast together and separately. Gallery III, Apr. 5 - 30 - "Images and Treasures: Portraits, Landscapes and Glass Treasures," featuring works by Mary Verrandeaux. For Spartanburg award-winning artist Mary Verrandeaux, variety is truly the spice of life - variety she will show in an exhibition of works. The exhibition will include about 20 of Verrandeaux's paintings, drawings, portraits, landscapes and fused glass art. "My art represents my ability to be creative, diverse and experimental," Verrandeaux, a native of Cortland, New York, says. "From children book illustrations to photo-realistic portraits, landscape paintings or fused glass, I am constantly experimenting and pushing my art to the next level." Ongoing - The Collective features a twenty thousand square foot facility offering affordable studio space, retail space, three galleries, a full ceramics studio, printery, and works by 50 local artists. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-4pm; with extended hours on the 3rd Thur. of each month until 9pm for Spartanburg's Art Walk. Beer and wine are available for those 21+. Ongoing - Works by Carl Tait and Harold Krisel are on display. Tait was a successful painter, textile designer, and interior designer. His ties to the Spartanburg community originate from his longtime employment at Milliken and Company. Tait was born in Old Town, Maine in 1917 and graduated from the New Hampshire Institute of Arts and Science. In the late 1940s, he moved to New York City where he designed an exclusive line of ladies' handkerchiefs for the department store B. Altman, now considered vintage, collectible items. He also became associated with the American Artist Group designing Christmas cards, an occupation which he kept up throughout the majority of his artistic career. Krisel was a distinguished artist, architect, and teacher as well as a loving father and husband. Though Krisel may not be a household name among Spartanburg residents, he has made a significant artistic contribution to the Spartanburg community. Born in Brooklyn, NY in 1920, Krisel's interest in art and design started at a young age. He attended the American Artist School in New York city as a teenager where he met renowned modern artists, including Piet Mondrian, who greatly influenced his abstract style. After studying architecture at the New Bauhaus in Chicago from 1946-1949, he received his graduate degree from Illinois Institute of Technology in 1952. The following year, he began working for architectural firm Skidmore, Owings and Merrill when Roger Milliken hired them to design Milliken's new research facility in Spartanburg. Upon realizing Krisel was also a sculptor, Milliken hired him to design the spray fountain outside of the facility which functions as a recycler of air conditioning water. He then went on to design the Trident Fountain located outside of the Papadopoulos building on Wofford College's campus. Hours: Mon.-Fri., 10am-7pm & Sat, 9am-3pm. Contact: 864-278-3228 or at (<https://www.mayfairartstudios.org/>).
