Work by Romare Bearden

Jerald Melberg Gallery, 625 South Sharon Amity Road, near corner of Providence Road, next to restaurant Hotel Charlotte, Charlotte. Through June 3 - "Ways of Working, Experiments & Techniques," a solo exhibition of work in a wide variety of media by Romare Bearden (1911-1988), which highlights many of his most frequently used mediums with the goal of providing education about each of his processes. From screenprints and etchings to photo projections and monotypes, this exhibition includes examples of Bearden's diverse methods of creating editioned and unique works. Many artists never branch out beyond one or two ways of working for fear of clouding their message, but Bearden's voice was so singular that it could transcend media. Through June 3 - Featuring new paintings by contemporary realist still life painter, Christopher Clamp. Growing up in Leesville, SC, Clamp spent much of his time combing through odds and ends in his grandfather's barn, divining stories about their importance and meaning. His deft abilities with oil paint elevate his subjects beyond pure kitsch and into portrait-like territory.
