Le Corbusier, "Le canape II (The Sofa II)", 1934-1956 © F.L.C. / ADAGP, Paris / Artists Rights Society (ARS), New York 2019

The Bechtler Museum of Modern Art in Charlotte, NC, is presenting Nomadic Murals: Tapestries of the Modern Era, an exploration and presentation of more than 40 tapestries created by artists usually associated with painting, sculpture, and architecture, including Alexander Calder, Le Corbusier, Joan Miró, and Pablo Picasso among many others, on view in the Fourth-Floor Gallery, through Dec. 1, 2019. Nomadic Murals will highlight the museum's collection of tapestries from the mid-20th century, as well as shed light on a unique medium that has been important to many great Modern and contemporary artists. This will be the first time that the museum's entire tapestries collection will be on view. The tapestries will be hung alongside the artists' work in more familiar media to demonstrate both the stylistic consistency and the unique contributions textile production brought to their oeuvre. The title of the exhibition stems from Le Corbusier's essay "Tapestries: Nomadic Murals." For further information visit (<http://bechtler.org>).
