Weatherspoon Art Museum, University of North Carolina - Greensboro, Cone Building, Tate and Spring Garden Streets, Greensboro. Through Aug. 18 - "Double Edged: Geometric Abstraction Then and Now". Carefully defined expanses of color and precisely calculated lines—the characteristic elements of geometric abstractions are often defined as rational, measured, and simple. Indeed, one can describe these artworks with a common vocabulary of shapes, colors, and sizes. Their meaning, however, is rarely so singular or straightforward. As painter Jo Baer noted, the challenge in making such work is to create "poetic objects" that are "discrete yet coherent, legible yet dense." She called these efforts "double-dealing, double-edged." The Gregory D. Ivy Gallery, The Weatherspoon Guild Gallery, Through Oct. 20 - "Here We Are: Painting and Sculpting the Human Form". Countless visual artists likewise have explored and affirmed the charged power of the human form. With works from the Weatherspoon's collection of modern and contemporary art, this installation considers the myriad ways in which they have done so. Some have presented their own bodies in self-portraits that address how we shape and construct our identities. Others have depicted celebrity figures, highlighting the social contexts in which certain individuals achieve acclaim or notoriety. Still, others have offered up fragments of unnamed bodies that speak to vulnerability and loss. A Noon @ the 'Spoon Public Tour will be offered on Apr 9 @ 12-12:20pm. The Leah Louise B. Tannenbaum Gallery, and The Louise D. and Herbert S. Falk, Sr. Gallery, June 8 - Sept. 15 - "2019 UNCG Faculty Biennial".
