Reynolda House Museum of American Art, Reynolda Road, Winston-Salem. West Bedroom Gallery, Through July 31 - "Substrata: the spirit of collage in 76 years of art," examines the influence of collage. Beginning in 1912, Pablo Picasso, Georges Braque and Juan Gris were the first artists to explore collage in a self-consciously modern way, in relation to both the history of art and to the culture of their time. Their Cubist collages were a radical break with the "window on the world" depictions of Renaissance painting. But after the Cubists' defiant, "punk" attitude of those early years, they returned to painting. Northwest Bedroom Gallery, Through Sept. 18 - "Louise Nevelson," the exhibition was curated by Dr. Jennifer Finkel, the Acquavella Curator of Collections at Wake Forest University. In addition to works from Reynolda's collection, the exhibition will include artworks from Wake Forest University's art collection, the Weatherspoon Art Museum and two private collections. Sculptor Louise Nevelson (1899-1988) described her artistic goals in this way: "My total conscious search in life has been for a new seeing, a new image, a new insight. This search not only includes the object, but the in-between places, the dawns and dusks, the objective world, the heavenly spheres, the places between the land and the sea." Ongoing - Collection of 18th through 20th century art, sculpture, American art, and pottery. Admission: Yes. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 9:30am-4:30pm & Sun., 1:30-4:30pm. Contact: 336/725-5325 or at (<https://reynolda.org/>).

16 - Dec. 11 - "Will Wilson: Connecting the Dots". An opening reception with the artist will be held on Thursday, June 16 from 5-8pm. The reception is free and open to the public, with a suggested $10 donation. "Will Wilson: Connecting the Dots," is a mid-career retrospective of the Diné (Navajo) photographer and community engagement artist. A prolific artist with a wide range of technical experience, Will Wilson presents an artistic vision that is experimental both in technique and approach. His works utilize cutting edge technologies alongside historical photographic processes, ranging from augmented reality and drone photography to tintypes. This exhibition showcases photography and sculpture from three significant bodies of work created over the last two decades, addressing topics such as environmental justice, institutional racism, and indigenous futurism. Potter Gallery, Through June 5 - "Sherrill Roland: The Odds," explores innocence, justice, and chance with works informed by the artist's wrongful incarceration. A reception will be held on Mar. 10, from 6-8pm. Roland's interdisciplinary practice examines innocence, identity, and community, reimagining those concepts in the context of the American criminal justice system. For more than three years, Roland's right to self-determination was lost to a wrongful incarceration. After spending ten months in prison for a crime he was later exonerated for, he returned to his artistic practice, which he now uses as a vehicle for self-reflection and as an outlet for emotional release. Ongoing - Founded in 1956, the Southeastern Center for Contemporary Art offers a front-row seat to the art of our time.
