Wilmington

Detail of work by James Grashow

Louise Wells Cameron Art Museum, @ intersection of Independence Blvd. & South 17th Street, Wilmington. Extended through Aug. 31 - "Corrugated World: The Artwork of James Grashow". Brooklyn born sculptor and woodcut artist James Grashow is known for his large-scale sculptures and installations made from cardboard. Grashow has worked with the medium of paper for over forty years exploring the human condition, mortality and the natural world. This exhibition features whimsical, animal-inspired installations as well as new sculptures created specifically for the Cameron Art Museum exhibition. When asked what keeps him interested in working with cardboard and his constructions, Grashow states, "I have always loved the line between fantasy and reality, metaphor and truth. It seems to me that in that space between the two, people are the most open and willing to see and learn." Through Nov. 2 - "School Pride: The Eastern NC Story," a site specific installation by nationally renowned artist Willie Cole. In observation of the 50th anniversary of the signing of the Civil Rights Act (July 2, 1964) Cameron Art Museum, in collaboration with Countywide Community Development Corporation of Navassa, NC, presents installations investigating the closing of sixteen Cape Fear area schools and other aspects of desegregation in southeastern NC and its impact statewide. Pancoe Art Education Center, Exhibition Cases, Ongoing - View some of the Seagrove and Contemporary Pottery from the museum's permanent collection in the cases. Southeastern Center for Contemporary Art, 750 Marguerite Drive, Winston-Salem. July 21 - Oct. 5 - "Neil Goldberg: Anthology," curated by Cora Fisher. Throughout his work, Neil Goldberg turns his gaze to the structure of time and the mechanisms of empathy, taking as his subject the overlooked, seemingly repetitive, and interstitial moments and faces of everyday life. Goldberg has made artworks with his parents as collaborators and with complete strangers he approaches on the street. At turns both conceptual and deeply personal, Goldberg's video, photography, and performative interventions follow a postmodern inclination towards seriality and isolate moments so they can become meditative specimens of ordinary experience." The exhibition will assemble a mini-retrospective of previous bodies of work, include new work made for the exhibition, and launch an interactive public presentation format that shares his artistic process. A dedicated week-long, interdisciplinary workshop between the artist and UNC-SA students in Dance will be folded into this live public presentation, demonstrating SECCA's unique partnerships within Winston-Salem's institutions and its support of contemporary art production. Potter Gallery, Through Sept. 15 - "Claire Harvey: Daily Measures". Harvey's observational drawings transform everyday experience into fascinating
