MoNA Gallery, 1900 N. Brevard Street, Charlotte. Through July 24 - "Elizabeth Arzani + Carmen Neely". A reception will be held on July 24, from 6-9pm. It began with an exquisite corpse practice, a game invented in the early 18th century by Surrealists. Each player or collaborator adds collected words or images to a composition in sequence. In this practice we have created a visually documented conversation, a dialogue of continuous line, shape, pattern and color. The layered collage and mark making reference two very distinct voices that coexist to create new narratives. In this work various combinations of textured wallpaper, blueprints, and documents from two separate routes of travel and experience intertwine. The resulting compositions challenge each contributor, as well as viewer, to respond to visual cues in a way that mimics collective storytelling. Ongoing - MoNA gallery currently represents nineteen local, regional, and national artists whose works embody a quiet simplicity. Through line, texture, layering, and structural references, our artists create symbolic parallels to man's effect on nature, our journey, our home, and the passage of time. At MoNA our goal is to make collecting art easy and accessible to everyone. Our mix of established and emerging artists ensures that whatever your budget you'll be able to find a beautiful original work. Hours: Thur. - Sat., 11am-6pm.
