Halsey Institute of Contemporary Art, The Marion and Wayland H. Cato Jr. Center for the Arts, College of Charleston School of the Arts, 161 Calhoun St., Charleston. Through July 9 - "Erwin Redl: Rational Exuberance." The title of this exhibition is a play on the famous phrase "irrational exuberance" used by former Federal Reserve Board chairman Alan Greenspan, in a speech to the American Enterprise Institute during the Dot-com bubble of the 1990s. In this case the title is the program. It refers to the artist's strict methodologies which employ binary logic as well as tropes of minimalism to exuberant extremes. As demonstrated in his light installations and most recent kinetic works, a very restrained vocabulary due to the scale, repetition, and variations leads to a sense of deep corporeality. The meaning oscillates between the purely abstract and profound sensuality. Hours: Mon.-Sat., 11am-4pm and open till 7pm on Thurs. Contact: Mark Sloan at 843/953-4422 or at (www.halsey.cofc.edu).

Columbia Area

Columbia Museum of Art, Main & Hampton Streets, Columbia. Mamie and William Andrew Treadway, Jr. Gallery 15, Through Sept. 25 - "Spoken: Portraits in Black". The exhibit orchestrates a conversation via portraits about the ways in which African-American artists depict the lived experience of black people. Portraits can be literal representations of a person, or they can represent a person symbolically. Portraits in Black features works that might not traditionally be regarded as portraiture but rather show how artists continually stretch the definitions of artistic categories. The pieces chosen for this exhibition not only seek to capture the sitter's physical appearance, but center the black face and body as means for illuminating character, disposition, and even inner psyche. With "Spoken: Portraits in Black", the CMA is highlighting the power and tradition of the portrait as meaningful genre with a nod to the dynamic contributions of African-American artists. Community Gallery, Through Oct. 23 - "Big & Bold: Selections from the Collection". Artists often decide to work large, and when they do, it is for a reason: size
