Southeastern Center for Contemporary Art, 750 Marguerite Drive, Winston-Salem. Through Oct. 5 - "Neil Goldberg: Anthology," curated by Cora Fisher. Throughout his work, Neil Goldberg turns his gaze to the structure of time and the mechanisms of empathy, taking as his subject the overlooked, seemingly repetitive, and interstitial moments and faces of everyday life. Goldberg has made artworks with his parents as collaborators and with complete strangers he approaches on the street. At turns both conceptual and deeply personal, Goldberg's video, photography, and performative interventions follow a postmodern inclination towards seriality and isolate moments so they can become meditative specimens of ordinary experience." The exhibition will assemble a mini-retrospective of previous bodies of work, include new work made for the exhibition, and launch an interactive public presentation format that shares his artistic process. A dedicated week-long, interdisciplinary workshop between the artist and UNC-SA students in Dance will be folded into this live public presentation, demonstrating SECCA's unique partnerships within Winston-Salem's institutions and its support of contemporary art production. Potter Gallery, Through Sept. 15 - "Claire Harvey: Daily Measures". Harvey's observational drawings transform everyday experience into fascinating microcosms, ranging in scale from miniature portraits to larger-than-life wall projections. The exhibition explores the relationship between subject, object, and medium through Harvey's revelatory drawings. The artist repurposes everyday materials such as glass slides, sticky-tack, Scotch tape and Post-it notes to serve as portable canvases. Tiny yet expansive, these images depict familiar and fleeting daily scenes and passersby. When viewed together, they create unexpected connection and meaning. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-5pm, Thur. till 8pm; Sun., 1-5 pm, and closed Mon. & state holidays. Admission is free. Contact: 336/725-1904 or at (www.secca.org).
