Maurice Worley, "Sundress", 2000, acrylic, 22.5 x 28 inches, collection of Dr. and Mrs. Harold M. Rhodes, III.

Springmaid Beach, Myrtle Beach. Through Sept. 10 - "Lifting Black Voices: The Rhodes Collection of African-American Art," includes more than 80 vibrant and expressive artworks that speak to the history, ancestry and life experiences of African-Americans. The collection of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Rhodes has been an ongoing project begun in 1971, although Dr. Rhodes says he has been interested in art his entire life. "To me, art ignites the imagination and influences the decisions we make...It affects each one of us differently, and that is the beauty of art," he adds. All of the artists represented are either native to or have spent significant portions of their careers working in South Carolina. Works on display include paintings and sculpture, quilts, batik and collage that offer glimpses of the Black Carolinian experience, from slavery through the struggle for civil rights as well as celebrating ancestry, faith, perseverance and heritage. Through Sept. 3 - "The Stick by Clay Rice". Developed by nationally-known silhouette artist Clay Rice and The South Carolina State Museum, "The Stick" traveling exhibition is based on the artist's children's book of the same name. "The Stick" is about a young boy, who embarks on an exciting life journey after finding a very special stick that sparks his creativity. "The Stick" is a poignant and heartfelt oath to the power of imagination," says Rice. With original illustrations by Rice, as well as dramatic gallery backdrops by local set designer Tim Harvey, "The Stick" will come to life inside our Museum walls. This family-friendly exhibition invites all ages to immerse themselves in the elegant black-and-white world of Rice's silhouettes accentuated by a fun and colorful gallery experience filled with kids' costumes, photo-ops and a cozy reading nook. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-4pm & Sun., 1-4pm. Contact: 843/238-2510 or at (www.myrtlebeachartmuseum.org).

Orangeburg

Cecil Williams Civil Rights Museum, 1865 Lake Drive, Orangeburg. Ongoing - Established in 2019, the exquisite ultra-modern facility displays 1000 images of the Civil Rights Movement, but from the perspective of The Epochal South Carolina Events That Changed America. The massive archives comprise the largest collection of images of this type among all museums in the United States; including the Atlanta based High Museum which archives 300 images. The images were created by the founder, Cecil Williams, who began photography at age 9 and covered almost all historically significant events in South Carolina; from 1950 Briggs v. Elliot in Summerton, thru the 1969 Charleston Hospital Workers' Strike...and Beyond. From 1955 through 1969, Williams was a freelance journalist for "JET" magazine. His images have appeared in thousands of magazines, newspapers, historical publications, and motion picture productions. The museum design itself is part of the founders' DNA because; upon graduating from high school, Williams wanted to attend Clemson University to study architecture but denied because of his race. He then purchased a drafting board and through the years, designed three residences; including one featured in "EBONY", and the museum's design which has evolved into a living history facility.
