Franklin G. Burroughs • Simeon B. Chapin Art Museum, 3100 South Ocean Blvd., beside Springmaid Beach, Myrtle Beach. Sept. 25 - Dec. 20 - "Jonathan Green - The Artist as Servant-Leader: A Retrospective of Community Engagement". Green is considered one of the most important of the Southern experience alive today. His themes are universal: work, play, family, home, love, faith, birth and death. This unique poster exhibition, premiering at our Art Museum, will feature approximately 60 posters of images created over the past 30 years and generously donated by Green in support of regional non-profit organizations. This exhibition recognized and salutes Green's unprecedented commitment to leadership and community service. Through Sept. 23 - "Andrea Baldeck: Sea Treasures". For Philadelphia-based photographer Baldeck, her passion began with a simple box camera at the age of eight and persisted through years of musical study at Vassar College, medical school at the University of Pennsylvania and her practice as an internist and anesthesiologist. On medical trips to Haiti and Grenada, a camera and a stethoscope occupied the same bag. Through Sept. 23 - "Kimono: Art, Fashion, and Society," featuring a new exhibit which explores the multifaceted aspects of the kimono as a work of art, a statement of fashion - public marker of manners and class distinction - and its place in society as an emblem of nationalism and cultural homogeneity. Literally meaning a "thing to wear," the kimono, the national costume of Japan, has come to symbolize feminine beauty, artistic refinement and cultural identity. Through Sept. 16 - "At First Light: The Katagami Sculpture of Jennifer Falck Linszen". Linszen reimagines the ancient art form of katagami, combining it with metalworking and basketry techniques to produce visually stunning contemporary sculptures filled with movement and light. Beginning in the 8th century A.D., Japanese artisans carved intricate and delicate paper stencils - katagami - to create the exquisite designs on kimonos. Jennifer's sculptures shed new light on this ancient technique and create an almost otherworldly presence of serenity and grace in the museum's gallery space. Hours: Tue.-Sat., 10am-4pm & Sun., 1-4pm. Contact: 843/238-2510 or at (www.myrtlebeachartmuseum.org).
