Work by Chase Langford

Elder Gallery of Contemporary Art, 1520 South Tryon Street, Charlotte. Through Sept. 4 - "The Fine Art of ArtPop." The ArtPop program turns billboards into public art sites and creates opportunities for artistic appreciation on roads, highways and thoroughfares. The self-described "street art gallery" has brought a broad range of artwork to city streets - including fine art paintings writ large - by some of the region's most accomplished fine artists. See new works by Janie Ball, Barbara Ellis, Nick Napoletano and Caroline Rust in this exhibition that breaks down the conventional notions of billboard art. Sept. 7 - Oct. 27 - "Evolution". Explore rich textures, abstract forms and the evolution of movement in the paintings of Susan Brenner and Chase Langford. A reception will be held on Sept. 7, from 5-8pm. These artists are constantly exploring and experimenting, but sometimes revisit earlier phases, or even come full circle, yet with new understandings of their foundations. Both facile with rendering and expressing an aliveness in their art, Brenner and Langford find ways to explore the mysteries of the world while fearlessly plunging into unknown territory and experimenting with ways in which to compose and express individuality. Both artists pull inspiration from the outer world, Brenner as she meticulously manipulates her own metaphorical tableaux, keeping them in a state of flux and Langford as he reinvents and abstracts forms he finds in different landscapes and geological strata. There is no final phase for Brenner or Langford - even in their mastery there is no endpoint to their evolution. Ongoing - We are thrilled to be the first gallery in North Carolina to offer fine glass art by nationally recognized artists Jon Kuhn, David Patchen and Marlene Rose.
